Curnow School is an Outstanding school and a founding academy of The Special Partnership Trust, a multi-academy trust in the South West of England which is striving to provide a consistently high quality standard of special education across the region.

Curnow School caters for pupils aged 2 - 19 with severe or profound learning difficulties as well as a number of students with autism. Our younger students attend Curnow Lower School - a purpose built provision based on the same site as Illogan Primary School and offers our young learners an environment which is conducive to their needs and one which helps meet our aspirational target of inclusive learning. Our older students attend Curnow Upper School in Redruth which is also a well equipped provision, catering for students with a wide-range of needs. We have also recently opened The Karder Hub in St Columb Major for a small number of Reception and Year 1 pupils.

We are now seeking to recruit a suitably experienced SEN Class Teacher to join our teaching team at Curnow Upper School to work with students aged 14 – 19 (KS4 / Post 16). We wish to appoint a teacher who is:

- An outstanding practitioner with good knowledge and experience of working with students with SEN, ideally within the secondary / Post 16 sector.
- A teacher with energy, creativity and passion for working in SEN education.
- Experienced in working alongside other professionals to deliver a personalised tailored curriculum.
- Is calm and patient and committed to all aspects of inclusion.
- Can demonstrate the ability to deploy staff effectively within a classroom setting.

This is a wonderful opportunity for a talented teacher to develop their teaching and leadership potential within the unique setting of a special multi-academy trust. The successful candidate will have a positive outlook, a proactive approach and a passion for excellence.

Applications are invited from candidates who can demonstrate specialism within SEN and an ability to work effectively within a multi-agency team to improve outcomes for our students.

We are committed to safeguarding children and the successful applicant will be required to undertake an enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check, and will be assessed against the Childcare Disqualification Regulations.
